CLOSE THURSDAY
18 APRIL 2024

HTAV is delighted to partner with Indigo Shire Council to offer the 2024 Regional Summit in Beechworth! Imagine taking part in workshops held in historical sites including the memorial hall, telegraph station and town hall. Immerse yourselves in the beauty and history that Beechworth has to offer.

This is a full-day program of conference workshops that were rated highly by Victorian History teachers. Sessions will cover Levels 7–10 and VCE History plus literacy, rubrics, assessment and historical thinking.

This will also be an opportunity to explore how you can use the Beechworth Historic Precinct to support your curriculum needs, provide resources and offer students immersive experiences.

Included in the cost of registration is:

- fifteen of the most popular professional learning workshops from recent HTAV conferences to choose from
- an opportunity to have your questions answered by the VCAA's Curriculum Manager for History and Civics
- morning tea, lunch AND the Summit dinner
- a choice of free entry and tours of numerous historical sites for delegates and their families on Sunday including the Burke Museum, the Historic Courthouse and Old Beechworth Gaol, followed by free entry into most venues for the rest of the day.

Let's mobilise the HTAV community to support tourism and businesses in Victoria's regional areas.

Stay Overnight

Turn this into a weekend away and bring the family!
