

2024

YEAR IN REVIEW

4,878 members from around Australia

12 Member Bulletins filled with teaching resources, opportunities, events and news

3 issues of Agora

4,874 member downloads

93 print subscribers

74 authors

23 books reviewed

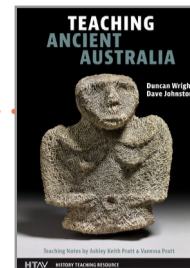

“ I was contacted by one of the world's leading historians of the French Revolution who somehow had read my Agora article in Los Angeles!

Peter McPhee, HTAV Patron and Agora author

HTAV is funded by the membership fees and purchasing choices of our community, and your support has brought all of this to life. Join us again in 2025 to continue improving your own teaching and providing this support to History teachers everywhere. Together, we can accomplish even more!

Released Teaching Ancient Australia to aid all teachers with their knowledge and teaching of Australia's First Nations archaeological history. This textbook was researched and written by archaeologists from the Australian National University, Canberra and practising History teachers, in consultation with First Nations communities, whose perspectives are included throughout.

12 History teachers

&

1 History teaching team

were honoured with HTAV Awards for their contributions to History education:

- ▶ Ian Lyell
- ▶ Luke Cashman
- ▶ Natalie Shephard
- ▶ Amanda Hann
- ▶ Athena Kavaleris
- ▶ Joel Kent
- ▶ The History teaching team at Carey Baptist Grammar School
- ▶ Thomas Senior
- ▶ Mathew Steen
- ▶ Lyndon John Pratt
- ▶ Shaunna Bilson
- ▶ Alexandar Krcevinac
- ▶ Gabriella Krywult

40 History teachers participated

A record number of History teachers joined the HTAV Peer Mentoring Program. The program brings together History teachers at all levels in their careers to create a community of support and experience.

“ [The program] really helped me steer the course in the direction I needed to and confirmed my timing of the unit as whole.

HTAV 2024 ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Changing the Course of History

800+ attendees at HTAV professional learning events

2 days
275+ attendees

Thursday Keynote: 'We Won, You Lost. Get Over It!' Moving Beyond Truth-telling to Justice in the Australian History Classroom
Dr Aleryk Fricker, Deakin University

39 workshops

Friday Keynote: Making Australian History
Professor Anna Clark, University of Technology Sydney

What was the best thing about the conference?

- “
- ▶ 'The quality of workshops and community-feel of the conference.'
 - ▶ 'Got to connect with members of the profession outside of my school context.'
 - ▶ 'Meeting like-minded historians and teachers and sharing ideas.'

12,000+ HTAV Publishing resources sold to History students and teachers

106 presenters

911

VCE History students and teachers benefitted from the VCE History Exam Revision Student Lectures

HTAV 2024 HISTORY TEACHER REGIONAL SUMMIT - Beechworth

Supported regional and metropolitan teachers through insightful workshops offered across two days, networking opportunities, historical tours, exhibitor stalls and more.

286 kms from Melbourne CBD

67 delegates

What was the best thing about the summit?

- “
- ▶ 'The relationships forged with fellow History teachers from regional Victoria.'
 - ▶ 'Learning in the historical town of Beechworth with passionate, knowledgeable and dedicated History teachers like myself.'
- 13 presenters
16 workshops

3.1K followers on Facebook
475 followers on Instagram
1.4K followers on LinkedIn

HTAV provided opportunities for members to extend themselves professionally by mentoring, writing books and articles, presenting at events and conferences, and undertaking leadership training.